Data Protection

Airedale Beekeepers Association undertakes to collect and use your personal data in compliance with the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR). Our legal basis for processing this data is our legitimate interest as a beekeeping association. We use the data for the administration of our training courses, your membership of the Association, the communication of information and the organisation of events, assessments and exams.

This information will be stored and used in compliance with the GDPR. Your data may be shared with the British Beekeepers Association (BBKA), the country's largest charity dedicated to helping Honeybees and the beekeepers that look after them, and also with the Yorkshire Beekeepers Association (YBKA) via eR2 which is a cloud based system for associations to upload and manage their members information within BDI's secure server. (BDI = Bee Disease Insurance)

Your data may be processed by the YBKA and the BBKA acting as Data Processors on our behalf. They may only use it for the specific purposes for which they act as our data processors and they are not free to pass this on to other organisations that are not connected with the Airedale Beekeepers Association.

Your personal data is not passed on by us for use by any other third parties whether or not connected with beekeeping. Full information about our data use policies, including how you can see what data we hold about you, how you can limit its use and how you can ask for inaccuracies in data to be corrected, may be found at www.ybka.co.uk and the BBKA's equivalent information at www.bbka.org.uk/gdpr.
Your personal details will be held in accordance with the EU General Data Protection Regulation 2018, detailed in our Privacy Policy available on our website www.airedalebka.org.uk

PLEASE NOTE: When an Association creates a new member's record, the Association has the ability to make changes to that record on behalf of the member.
